

Appointments to the Board of Governors of the Notary Foundation of BC

July 3, 2008

Chris Dupuis, Chair of the Notary Foundation of British Columbia, is pleased to announce the selection of David Moore and the re-appointment of Wayne Strandlund as members of the Board of the Notary Foundation of BC.

The BC Attorney General has appointed both gentlemen as Governors of the Notary Foundation, to serve until January 1, 2011.

David Moore

David graduated from the University of British Columbia in 1985 with a BA in English. In April 1989 he graduated with an LLB and in 1999 obtained his Master of Education degree. David practised law from 1989 to 1991 and, in 1992, moved to UBC where he served in various capacities. He is currently Director of Licensing and Education for the Real Estate Division – Sauder School of Business.

David is a member of the Law Society of BC (nonpractising), the Real Estate Institute of BC, the Real Estate Institute of Canada, and the Greater Vancouver Home Builders Association.

As the Sauder School's representative and liaison with The Society of Notaries Public and the Notary Preparatory Course, he presents the annual award on behalf of the Sauder School to the Notary student who receives the highest marks on the Conveyancing Examination.

Wayne Strandlund

Wayne is a University of Victoria honours graduate and founder of Fisgard Capital, a Canadian investment fund. He is a former president of the Victoria

Real Estate Board and the British Columbia Real Estate Association, where he represented BCREA on the Expropriation Association and the Treaty Negotiations Advisory Committee.

He is a past chair of the Board of Governors of the Victoria Conservatory of Music and a former director of the Victoria Symphony. Wayne spent several years with the Canadian College for Chinese Studies where he lectured to foreign business delegations on the subject of Canadian Securities.

Wayne is currently a member of the British Columbia Real Estate Council and a director of Fisgard Capital.

The Strandlund family is very involved in education, sports, arts, and culture in the Victoria community. Their main project is their yearly sponsorship of the 2-week Mozart Festival.
