

Spotlight on Good Works

Wayne Braid and Tennille Campbell

Camosun College

Notary Foundation Executive Officer G. W. (Wayne) Braid presented Camosun College School of Business student Tennille Campbell with a bursary at the School of Business Awards 2004, sponsored by the Camosun College Foundation.

Keri Martens and Gwenyth Yip

Langara College

On behalf of the Notary Foundation, C. Keri Martens presented The Society of Notaries Public of British Columbia Scholarship to Langara College student Gwenyth Yip.

Capilano College

Notary Foundation Chair Leta Best presents a cheque to Donna Phillips, Department Chair, Institute of Paralegal Studies at Capilano College. The College will match the funds, which will be used to establish an endowed scholarship and bursary for the Capilano College Institute of Paralegal Studies. The endowed funds will create an annual income in perpetuity, benefiting students in this field of study for years to come.

From left: Jennifer L. Harry, Director at Large, Notary Foundation of BC; Leta C. Best; Donna Phillips; Margot J. Spence, Faculty, Legal Assistant Department; Wayne Braid, Executive Officer, Notary Foundation; and Aderita Roets, Executive Director, Capilano College Foundation

Susan Haddon and Leta Best

Notary Foundation Presentation to Camosun College Foundation

“I’m so proud of Camosun College,” said Notary Foundation President Leta Best at the Cover Story luncheon. “A native Victorian, as are both my parents, I have seen the school develop from the old normal school at Lansdowne campus to where you are today—a full community college educating thousands of students. You are helping these people enter the workforce. I cannot thank you enough for the work you are doing out here. On behalf of the Notary Foundation of BC, I would like to make this presentation to help you continue your work.”

Susan Haddon, Executive Director of the Camosun College Foundation, accepted the cheque. “We are so grateful for the support of the Notary Foundation. It is a phenomenal amount of help to our students.” Susan then presented Leta with a Camosun College Foundation pin, “which we hope keeps the Camosun College Foundation, and the good work the Notary Foundation does on our behalf, at top of mind.”