

Letters

I would like to congratulate you on your Fall 2005 issue, which was exceptionally enjoyable. It is more than apparent that these women are outstanding and the future is bright with potential. It seems we have been short on recognizing the women that do make a difference, although many have tremendous responsibilities besides their careers.

Thank you,
Judi Whyte, RI(BC)

Thank you for sending us copies of The Scrivener. The article looked wonderful. [December 2005, Winter issue, Vol. 14. No. 4]

We really appreciate the opportunity to share information on the MS Society's Volunteer Legal Advocacy Program with your membership, clients, and readers.

All the best for 2006.

Kindly,
