

Our leading-edge tech writer, Vancouver Notary Akash Sablok, recently presented a line of electronics products on national TV via The Shopping Channel in Toronto. In the Green Room, he met Priscilla Presley, at TSC to promote her line of bed linens.

Akash and Ms. Presley at TSC's TV studio. Photo was taken by her designing partner Bruno Schiavi.

Please send your photos and words to scrivener@notaries.bc.ca.

Roving Notary Mary-Ann Mustonen married Billy Hinds on the Summer Solstice 2008.

Following the ceremony, the couple celebrated with friends on a private cruise in Vancouver Harbour.

Mary-Ann and Billy honeymooning in Egypt

Says Mary-Ann, "When I travel, I don't collect items that take up space in my home. I collect two small words that mean so much to people everywhere: Thank You. I love the smiles I see when I make the effort to say Thank You to my clients in their native tongues.

Steve Michoulas has joined the LTSA Stakeholder Advisory Committee representing the Canadian Bar Association. Mr. Michoulas practises as a Solicitor with Lang Michener LLP and is Chair of the Canadian Bar Association Real Property Subsection (Vancouver).

Courtenay Notary Kate Greening, who lives in the Village of Cumberland, was elected to Cumberland Council in November.

Her campaign slogan? "If you are tired of listening to me, vote for me and I'll listen to you!"

Howard H. Engman and his daughter Marnie Gunter in Tokyo in November 2008. Howard is a Notary in New Westminster; Marnie is a BC Notary student who wrote her exams in March 2009.

Where in the World has The Scrivener Been?

Brunei Darussalam: Murali Krishnan with family friend Doris Yapp at the historic landmark site, the Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddien Mosque

Notary Shabbir Nanji and his daughter Gulanar Aqeela "finally embarked upon our dream vacation." Here they are in front of the Amber Fort in Rajasthan, India.