

Kerry Pollner "K.P."

1951 – 2002

The legal community on Vancouver Island has lost one of its most flamboyant and respected members. "K.P.," owner of Pollner Registry Services Ltd., died suddenly May 16, 2002. Many Notaries and lawyers have depended on his expertise. No one could find their way through the dusty archives of the Land Titles Office better than he could.

"K.P." will always be remembered for his quirky sense of humour. There was never a dull moment when you were with him. His gusto for life was unmatched; it endeared him to many, as was evident at the celebration of his life in Cobble Hill, where some 300 people jammed the rafters at St. Johns Anglican Church. His funeral will not soon be forgotten.

"K.P." will be dearly missed by his wife Sheila; children Kyle, Kory, and Kurt; his faithful companion Sammy; and many good friends and family members.
