International Congress of Latin Notaries in Mexico City 2004

The International Congress of Latin Notaries was held in Mexico City in October.

It was attended by our Immediate Past President Leta Best, Ken and Marg Sherk, Laurie Salvador, Wayne Braid, Tiah Workman and her son Sean, Leanne Rebantad, El and Noreen Fedewich, and retired BC Notary Roy Bishop and Roy's wife Betty.

Latin Notaries are highly regarded in the international legal community. Delegates from over 60 countries gather every three years to discuss global issues that effect Notaries. At each Congress, the delegates examine three different topics, selected 18 months prior to the conference. Each participating country presents a paper on the subject. Two of the topics were of particular interest to the Notaries of British Columbia:

- the difference in contracts in a common law country and in a civil law country; and
- Electronic Registration of documents by a Notary.
