

People

Ken and Marjorie Sherk took The Scrivener to Versailles with friends Digby and Kathy Leigh.

Glory Ewen, her husband Chris, and Chris Dupuis (right), Immediate Past President of The Society

Ride for Cancer

BC Notary Glory Ewen is active in causes that raise money to help eradicate cancer. She lost her husband Chris and their friend John Roberts to the disease in 2005.

Chris Ewen fought a hard battle with throat cancer. Almost everyone has lost someone to cancer or knows someone who is battling cancer. Both Glory's mom and a brother are cancer survivors. This year, Glory did the Terry Fox Hometown 25 K Walk/Run for Cancer and the Memorial Ride for Cancer, which reached its goal of $10,000. It is never too late to donate to help fight this terrible disease.

General Roy Cammack and his fiancée Dawn Byhre, way down south in Seaside, Oregon, in the Fall of '06

Richmond News Publisher Randall Taylor presents Best Notary 2006 award to Nancy Schick Skinner.

Vernon Hargreaves

October 30, 1916 – October 29, 2006

Vernon Hargreaves, our former member and a great Notary, passed away one day before his 90th birthday.

He will live on in the hearts of his loving family, including daughter Betsy Gibbons, her husband John Verenini, their sons David and Paul, and new grandchild Max.

Born in Vancouver, Vernon served in WW II. He became a BC Notary in 1959, joining his father's Notary practice and serving the public for 30 years.

"Vern was a great mentor to the many students he taught during our notarial training. Always ready to provide any member with advice, he was a great source of assistance and knowledge. Vern ably served The Society as President and was also one of our few Honorary Members."

Wayne Braid

For the eighth year in a row, Nancy Schick Skinner has won the Richmond News Readers' Choice award for "Best Notary." She has won each year since the category of Notary was added to the contest.